

Do You Want the Power of ACCPAC Information at your Fingertips?

Today, any information we do not use is a loss of competitive advantage. Despite all the data collected, somehow even simple facts are still hard to find. Crystal Reports provide your company with access to critical business information so you can make smarter, more profitable decisions every day.

With two levels of training geared towards helping you improve the way you use your ACCPAC data, Paragon Consulting Group will train you on using Crystal Reports to generate reports that present the information you want to see. Register today for Crystal Reports training and take your company to the next level!
